WEST HARTFORD, CONN. – Saint Joseph College is focused on empowering women. We invite all prospective undergraduate students and families to join us for our Spring Open House on Sunday, May 1, 2011 from 9:30 a.m. – noon; registration begins in The Bruyette Athenaeum. Tour our classic New England campus, learn about the benefits of our career-focused academic programs through presentations and conversations with faculty, and meet current students to learn about student life and leadership opportunities. To register, call the Office of Admissions at 860.231.5216 or online at <http://www.sjc.edu/visitus>.

At Saint Joseph College, students discover their strongest selves. As an undergraduate student, you will benefit from:

- Small class sizes
- 1:1 faculty mentorships
- Generous scholarships – including the Catherine McCauley Scholarship – up to $19,000 per year to students attending Catholic high schools
- Challenging academics

Saint Joseph College offers you the opportunity to explore your potential, focus on your future, and serve your community!

###

Saint Joseph College, founded in 1932 by the Sisters of Mercy to provide higher education opportunities for women, is a comprehensive institution serving women from diverse backgrounds and religious traditions. Responsive to the evolving educational needs of the community, the School of Graduate and Professional Studies also offers both women and men graduate degree programs in many fields, a Weekend Program for Adult Learners, professional certificate programs relevant to today's workforce, and other continuing education opportunities. In the fall of 2011, the Saint Joseph College School of Pharmacy, the first doctoral program in the College's 78-year history, will open at Hartford 21 on Trumbull Street in downtown Hartford.
