

IGLEHART HALL
ADMITTANCE POLICY
St. John's College - Annapolis

*Effective July 1, 2017
Enforcement begins August 1, 2017*

Effective July 1st, 2017, every user of Iglehart Hall must have their own St. John's College 1-Card or be an accompanied guest.

Gym users may be asked to show their card to Public Safety Officers, Gym Staff, or others as proof of gym-use eligibility. Anyone without a keycard may be asked to leave the facility by Public Safety Officers and/or Gym Staff. Lending of cards is not permitted and may result in revocation of card-use privileges.

See below for further details regarding access to Iglehart Hall.

1. During normal operating hours, access to and use of Iglehart Hall is available for:
 - a. St. John's College faculty, staff, and current students.
 - i. Spouses and Partners of the above are also eligible for access.
 - b. Members of the following groups, who may purchase 1-Cards annually for unaccompanied access to the gym during normal operating hours.
 - i. St. John's College Alumni.
 - ii. Children—16 years of age and older—of current students, faculty, and staff
 - c. Accompanied guests of a gym user from one of the groups indicated above
 - i. Any gym user may host up to two guests at any one time.
 - ii. Guests must either be over 16 years of age or accompanied by an adult.
 - iii. All guest(s) must depart the gym with their host.
2. Every person using the gym, including each guest, must have a signed waiver on file.
3. Use of Iglehart Hall and the equipment within may be unsupervised and all activity in the facility is undertaken at one's own risk. Solitary use of the equipment and facility should be avoided.

4. Periodic Restrictions

- a. The Athletics and Recreation Coordinator, Assistant Dean, or Dean may restrict any individual or group's access to the facility at any time. The college's Student Handbook—available on the college's website—will serve as a general guide to acceptable behavior within Iglehart Hall.
- b. From time to time, the facility, or parts thereof, may be rented or reserved through the campus reservations office or the Athletics and Recreation Coordinator. At these times, general access to the gym may be restricted and individuals that are a part of the rental group may use the gym without keycards.
