The $250 Advance Deposit Dates: (Newly admitted students are notified of their specific advance deposit due date if their admission offer occurs after the published date.) To secure initial enrollment in an upcoming semester, the $250 advance deposit is due in the College's Business Office by the following date:

Fall semester – May 1
Spring semester – October 1
Summer semester – March 15

The Tuition & Fees Payment Dates: To guarantee enrollment in an upcoming semester, in addition to the advance deposit, tuition and fees should be paid in full in the College's Business Office by the following date:

Fall semester – August 1
Spring semester – December 1
Summer semester – May 25

Financial Aid Note: Application for financial aid should be made online at studentaid.ed.gov. The federal code for Annapolis is 002092; for Santa Fe, it is 002093. Send copies of the previous year's W2 forms and federal tax return to the Financial Aid Office. For additional information, either refer to the Graduate Institute page of the St. John's College website at sjc.edu/graduate-financial-aid, or send e-mail to finaid@sjc.edu, or call 410-626-2502.

Transfer Between Campuses: Students must be in good academic and financial standing to be eligible to submit an Intercampus Transfer form to both Graduate Institute Offices at both campuses. Students who apply to transfer within fewer than 60 days before the beginning of the upcoming semester will forfeit $50 of their advance deposit.

Part-Time Enrollment: Part-time enrollment is only possible in special circumstances and with approval from the Associate Dean. Once approved, please indicate on page two which courses you desire and when you wish to enroll. Part-time enrollment may disqualify you from receiving financial aid. In addition, changing to part-time or dropping courses may jeopardize your financial aid and health insurance coverage through the College.
